OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric, such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail

DAILY GAZETTE.

A CURIOUS STUDY.—How many kinds of insects are in existence is a question that would require a good deal of figuring. Whence come many varieties is another question to which no one can pretend to give an answer. Scarce a species of plant exists without a distinct variety of insects that grow upon it. The idea appears an absurdity, yet it seems as if animal life was imparted by light alone, where its germ had no existence. A curious illustration of this was recently shown to us. Mr. Hubbell, the well-known apothecary, was experimenting upon different colored glass, with a view to finding the tint that would best prevent chemical change in substances contained in the jars and bottles made from it. This was four years ago. He applied the test to African peppers. These peppers are bright vermillion in color, with a surface as beautiful as coral. They are as hot as a dozen American-grown peppers concentrated into one. He filled with them two jars, one of white glass, the other of bluish green, made to his order. The peppers in the white jar underwent a change, and after two years, though the vessel was hermetically sealed, were filled with minute worms. No ordinary vermin could exist among African peppers. Opening the jar a short time since, there was nothing left but odorless powder, utterly void of pungency, composed of the dead and dried worms and the worthless debris of the peppers. The contents of the other jar were as sound and as bright as on the day when first deposited. We were also shown a tin can of sambow, a medicinal root, in thick slices, brought from Siberia. It had arrived sound, but not being immediately used had become full of little purple insects, unlike to anything hereabouts to be seen. The germ of these insects must have existed when it was dug up by the Russian exiles in the high latitude from which it came. If not, why not? Be this as it may, the fact is worth knowing that greenish blue glass neutralizes the chemical agency of light, and entirely prevents the efflorescences of chemical salts, and the deterioration of quality in articles kept in bottles of that color.—Philadelphia North American.

CLEVER FEAT OF A YANKEE SCHOOLMASTER.—A Hilton Head correspondent tell the following story of a schoolmaster belonging in Maine, who made his escape last week from the rebel army and from Savannah, Georgia, in the following manner:

Corporal McFadden, of the 47th Georgia volunteers, is the author of a very neat proceeding. He not only deserted the rebel cause, but brought in two men from his own regiment prisoners, and gave them up to Col. Barton, at Fort Pulaski. Obtaining permission to go a short distance down the river from Savannah, and securing the detail of a couple of soldiers to serve as oarsmen, he got their rifles under his feet, and, with a loaded revolver at their heads, persuaded them, however much it may have been against their will, to row him to Pulaski. There he arrived on Sunday night last, and waited in his boat, guarding his captives, till morning. They own to having taken a good many lessons from Yankee schoolmasters in their day; but this one, they assert, will last them longest of all. McFadden, whose home and birth place are in Maine, enlisted about two months ago, with a view of getting out of the confederacy. How he was to escape to our lines never troubled him. He depended on his Down East cuteness to get himself over to our side.

DESAIX.—Seeing that Desaix is one of the three generals named as pattern warriors in the letter of General Scott, just given to the public, our readers will perhaps be gratified if we produce Napoleon's estimate of that celebrated officer. "Of all the generals I ever had under me," said Napoleon to O'Meara, at St. Helena, "Desaix and Kleber possessed the greatest talent; especially Desaix, as Kleber only loved glory inasmuch as it was the means of procuring him riches and pleasure, whereas Desaix loved glory for itself, and despised everything else. Desaix was wholly wrapped up in war and glory. To him riches and pleasure were valueless, nor did he give them a moment's thought. He was a little, black looking man, about an inch shorter than I am, always badly dressed, sometimes even ragged, and despising comfort or convenience. When in Egypt I made him a present of a complete field equipage several times, but he always lost it. Wrapped up in a cloak, Desaix threw himself under a gun, and slept as contentedly as if he were in a palace. For him luxury had no charms. Upright and honest in all his proceedings, he was called by the Arabs the just Sultan. He was intended by nature for a great general."—There are features in this picture of a great general by a greater one that we would fain commend to the especial study of some of our own generals.—Louisville Journal.

An anecdote of Napoleon III, is thus told by the Paris correspondent of the London Times: "Walking the other day on the beach at Biarritz, his Majesty happened to meet an intelligent looking boy, about eight or nine years old, who took off his hat as he passed. The emperor courteously returned the salute and said 'Are you English?' 'No,' answered the boy very quickly, and drawing himself up, 'I'm American.' 'Oh! American, are you? Well, tell me, which are you for, north or south?' 'Well, father's for the north, I believe, but I am certainly for the south. For which of them are you, sir?, The emperor stroked his moustache, smiled, hesitated a little, and then said, 'I am for both.' 'For both, are you? Well, that's not so easy, and it will please nobody.' His majesty let the conversation drop, and walked on."

SMELLING A MINIE BALL.—A correspondent from the battle-field, speaking of the effects of a passing rifle ball, says: "But the most singular thing, and which I do not remember to have heard mentioned heretofore, is the effect of these balls upon the atmosphere through which they pass. The passage of one immediately across your face is followed by a momentary sensation of deadly sickness. The air seems thick, stifling and putrid, like that of a newly opened vault, accompanied by an odor of certain kinds of fungi found in the woods, and never willingly disturbed by either man or beast. I should like to know if any one else has felt this, or is it a peculiar fancy of my own?"

The Appleton Crescent says as high as $200 and $300 have been paid for substitutes in that county.

FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine
Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A CURIOUS STUDY.—How many kinds of insects are in existence is a question that would require a good deal of figuring. Whence come many varieties is another question to which no one can pretend to give an answer. Scarce a species of plant exists without a distinct variety of insects that grow upon it. The idea appears an absurdity, yet it seems as if animal life was imparted by light alone, where its germ had no existence. A curious illustration of this was recently shown to us. Mr. Hubbell, the well-known apothecary, was experimenting upon different colored glass, with a view to finding the tint that would best prevent chemical change in substances contained in the jars and bottles made from it. This was four years ago. He applied the test to African peppers. These peppers are bright vermillion in color, with a surface as beautiful as coral. They are as hot as a dozen American-grown peppers concentrated into one. He filled with them two jars, one of white glass, the other of bluish green, made to his order. The peppers in the white jar underwent a change, and after two years, though the vessel was hermetically sealed, were filled with minute worms. No ordinary vermin could exist among African peppers. Opening the jar a short time since, there was nothing left but odorless powder, utterly void of pungency, composed of the dead and dried worms and the worthless debris of the peppers. The contents of the other jar were as sound and as bright as on the day when first deposited. We were also shown a tin can of sambow, a medicinal root, in thick slices, brought from Siberia. It had arrived sound, but not being immediately used had become full of little purple insects, unlike to anything hereabouts to be seen. The germ of these insects must have existed when it was dug up by the Russian exiles in the high latitude from which it came. If not, why not? Be this as it may, the fact is worth knowing that greenish blue glass neutralizes the chemical agency of light, and entirely prevents the efflorescences of chemical salts, and the deterioration of quality in articles kept in bottles of that color.—Philadelphia North American.

CLEVER FEAT OF A YANKEE SCHOOLMASTER.—A Hilton Head correspondent tell the following story of a schoolmaster belonging in Maine, who made his escape last week from the rebel army and from Savannah, Georgia, in the following manner:

Corporal McFadden, of the 47th Georgia volunteers, is the author of a very neat proceeding. He not only deserted the rebel cause, but brought in two men from his own regiment prisoners, and gave them up to Col. Barton, at Fort Pulaski. Obtaining permission to go a short distance down the river from Savannah, and securing the detail of a couple of soldiers to serve as oarsmen, he got their rifles under his feet, and, with a loaded revolver at their heads, persuaded them, however much it may have been against their will, to row him to Pulaski. There he arrived on Sunday night last, and waited in his boat, guarding his captives, till morning. They own to having taken a good many lessons from Yankee schoolmasters in their day; but this one, they assert, will last them longest of all. McFadden, whose home and birth place are in Maine, enlisted about two months ago, with a view of getting out of the confederacy. How he was to escape to our lines never troubled him. He depended on his Down East cuteness to get himself over to our side.

DESAIX.—Seeing that Desaix is one of the three generals named as pattern warriors in the letter of General Scott, just given to the public, our readers will perhaps be gratified if we produce Napoleon's estimate of that celebrated officer. "Of all the generals I ever had under me," said Napoleon to O'Meara, at St. Helena, "Desaix and Kleber possessed the greatest talent; especially Desaix, as Kleber only loved glory inasmuch as it was the means of procuring him riches and pleasure, whereas Desaix loved glory for itself, and despised everything else. Desaix was wholly wrapped up in war and glory. To him riches and pleasure were valueless, nor did he give them a moment's thought. He was a little, black looking man, about an inch shorter than I am, always badly dressed, sometimes even ragged, and despising comfort or convenience. When in Egypt I made him a present of a complete field equipage several times, but he always lost it. Wrapped up in a cloak, Desaix threw himself under a gun, and slept as contentedly as if he were in a palace. For him luxury had no charms. Upright and honest in all his proceedings, he was called by the Arabs the just Sultan. He was intended by nature for a great general."—There are features in this picture of a great general by a greater one that we would fain commend to the especial study of some of our own generals.—Louisville Journal.

An anecdote of Napoleon III, is thus told by the Paris correspondent of the London Times: "Walking the other day on the beach at Biarritz, his Majesty happened to meet an intelligent-looking boy, about eight or nine years old, who took off his hat as he passed. The emperor courteously returned the salute and said 'Are you English?' 'No,' answered the boy very quickly, and drawing himself up, 'I'm American.' 'Oh! American, are you? Well, tell me, which are you for, north or south?' 'Well, father's for the north, I believe, but I am certainly for the south. For which of them are you, sir?, The emperor stroked his moustache, smiled, hesitated a little, and then said, 'I am for both.' 'For both, are you? Well, that's not so easy, and it will please nobody.' His majesty let the conversation drop, and walked on."

SMELLING A MINIE BALL.—A correspondent from the battle-field, speaking of the effects of a passing rifle ball, says: "But the most singular thing, and which I do not remember to have heard mentioned heretofore, is the effect of these balls upon the atmosphere through which they pass. The passage of one immediately across your face is followed by a momentary sensation of deadly sickness. The air seems thick, stifling and putrid, like that of a newly opened vault, accompanied by an odor of certain kinds of fungi found in the woods, and never willingly disturbed by either man or beast. I should like to know if any one else has felt this, or is it a peculiar fancy of my own?"

The Appleton Crescent says as high as $200 and $300 have been paid for substitutes in that county.

The New Jersey people talk of sending Gen. McClellan to the United States Senate.

"Captives of War" in the Army.

We have heretofore alluded to the fact that the pro-slavery commanders of Union troops in Kentucky have attempted to compel Wisconsin regiments to return fugitive slaves who have fled to them for protection. This course of conduct is still continued, although it is clearly contrary to law. A soldier in the 22d regiment writes to the Racine Advocate as follows:

It is impossible to give friends at home adequate ideas of the inveterate and determined manner with which southern slaveholders and their army sympathizers cling to the "nigger." Slavery with them is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. Integrity, honor, patriotism and every noble principle in man pay homage to this southern God. It seems to be a fixed purpose on the part of army leaders in Kentucky, first to conquer and subdue all anti-slavery principles in northern regiments, cost what it may, and peril what it will. The 22d regiment has been kept constantly on the rack, still it maintains its integrity and is waging a good warfare.

The course taken by Gen. Gillmore subsequent to his declaration of policy, mentioned in my last, was most surprising and humiliating to every American citizen or soldier, holding sacred his country's honor. As a Michigan regiment was marching through Georgetown, almost in his immediate presence, some forty persons with drawn pistols, rushed into the ranks and forcibly took out every contraband. Before leaving Gorgetown himself, he was seen to get off his horse and accompany a slave-catcher to a passing regiment and assist him in taking a flying fugitive from the ranks; and he was heard to threaten the trembling transgressor of southern rule with death should he again attempt to transform himself from a slave into a man. Honorable work for a commanding general in the loyal army of the United States.

One officer in high standing as a military man (his name may yet be given,) has boldly intimated that it was the purpose of commanding officers of this department to ignore the action of congress and the proclamation of the President, making both dead letters. Strange and perhaps unreasonable as this may appear to the quiet and loyal citizens of Wisconsin, few here, familiar with the course pursued by commanding officers, will doubt that such a purpose exists.

That such of our soldiers in the army as may see our paper may know what the law of congress is on this subject, we copy the following from the confiscation act:

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all slaves of persons who shall hereafter be engaged in rebellion against the government of the United States, or who shall in any way give aid or comfort thereto, escaping from such persons and taking refuge within the lines of the army, and all slaves captured from such persons, or deserted by them and coming under the control of the government of the United States, and all slaves of such persons found or being within any place occupied by rebel forces, and afterwards occupied by the forces of the United States, shall be deemed captives of war, and shall be forever free of their servitude, and not again held as slaves.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That no slave escaping into any state, territory, or the District of Columbia, from any other state, shall be delivered up; or in any way impeded or hindered of his liberty, except for crime or some offence against the laws, unless the person claiming said fugitive shall first make oath that the person to whom the labor or service of such fugitive is alleged to be due, is his lawful owner, and has not borne arms against the United States in the present rebellion, nor in any way given aid and comfort thereto; and no person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States shall, under any pretence whatever, assume to decide on the validity of the claim of any person to the service or labor of any other person, or surrender up such person to the claimant, on pain of being discharged from the service.

We trust that all Wisconsin regiments, wherever they may be located, will refuse, as the 22d has done, to surrender up any fugitive that may come to their ranks, as they are to be treated as "captives of war," and are forever free; and no person in the military service has any right to decide upon claims made for the possession of slaves that may come into our lines. There is no distinction made between officers and men in this respect, as all are liable to the law, and to such other penalties as are imposed for violating any of the articles of war. We understand that the war department has taken some action to compel these Kentucky generals to conform to this enactment of congress, but they may still ignore their duty, and it is well that our volunteers should know their rights on this subject.

VERY ONE-SIDED.—The vote of nine companies of the 5th regiment—all except company D—has been received. It gives 74 for Potter, 1 for J. S. Brown; 32 for Sloan, 0 for Guppy; 38 for Cobb, 1 for Simpson; 26 for Bragg; 43 for E. L. Browne, 20 for Wheeler; 88 for Hanchett, 4 for Stoddard; and 8 scattering—being 301 republican and 26 democratic. The boys of this regiment fight well and vote well. The new company from Dunn county goes it strong—70 for Hanchett to 4 for Stoddard.

Washington county, where the draft is resisted, casts 2,946 votes for Eldredge (Vallandigham democrat), to 559 for Col. Bragg (War democrat). Bragg runs considerably ahead of the regular republican vote.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
From Lake Superior.

[The following letter is from a member of the 10th Wisconsin regiment, taken prisoner last summer in Tennessee, and paroled but not exchanged. We understand that the government has sent about two hundred of these paroled men to Bayfield, Lake Superior, to look after the Indians during the winter.]

BAYFIELD, Nov. 11th, 1862.

We left Milwaukee one week ago last Monday, and reached Bayfield after seven day's travel. The first day out we reached and passed the straits of Mackinaw; stopping at Mackinaw about 10 o'clock at night. At noon of the second day we entered the canal, which is three-quarters of a mile long. Before reaching the canal we passed through the Sault St. Marie, which is about sixty miles long. Between the river and canal is Soo City, which is quite a place, about as large as they make in this part of the country.

The canal locks up, there being three of them. We only stopped long enough to get through the locks, but when through we tied up at Iroquois Point to wait for a snow storm to abate, it being deemed unsafe to venture on the lake until the blow was over. After lying there nearly 20 hours the storm abated, and we went on our way.

Nothing occurred worthy of note until the sixth day, when we entered Portage river and lake, running a distance of twenty miles to the town of Portage, whose only qualification for notice is its copper mines. We lay there 30 hours, unloading our cargo, which was nearly all for that place. I examined the mines and well paid I was for my trouble. There are seven shafts, which connect underground. They are some distance above the water, perhaps 100 feet, and 60 or 100 rods back from the water. The houses where the ore is pounded and washed stand on the bank of the lake, and the ore is brought to them by means of cars which run on a double track. It is an inclined plane, and the cars run by means of a rope pulley, and the attraction of gravitation. When the loaded car comes down the empty one goes up.

The pounding and washing is done mostly by machinery. The ore is first pounded fine, and then washed until the copper is all out. It separates in small, scale like particles, and is then barreled up and sent off. The box or socket that the pounder plays in is cleaned out twice in 24 hours. The pieces taken out are sometimes six or seven pounds in weight. In one of the houses the work of pounding and washing is done entirely by machinery. The pounders are driven by steam. They fall with the weight of 30 tons, and are four in number. Four men are kept constantly at work shoveling ore to supply them. The distance from Portage across west to land is only 12 miles, while the distance around is over 200 miles.

We left Portage early Sunday morning, and after running until about 10 o'clock, found the pump full of sand, which of course shut off the supply of water from the boilers, and which detained us nearly all day. We then run into Lapointe, and remained until Monday morning, when we run into Bayfield, which was only seven miles distant.

Bayfield contains perhaps 200 inhabitants, and is situated in about as warm a place as we can find up here. Our quarters are in a warehouse right on the banks of the bay. We will soon have it quite comfortable.

There are a good many half breeds here, and the Indians we are to look after are back about six miles upon the reservation.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
Major General Rosecrans' Headquarters,
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 14, 1862.

EDITORS GAZETTE: We left Bowling Green early Sunday morning, and on Tuesday at 10 o'clock reached here. The citizens call that rapid moving, as the distance is over seventy miles.

The severe drouth here for the last three months, together with the vast amount of travel on the roads, have created a fine stone dust about three inches deep all over the road. When man, beast or carriage moves, this dust arises in a thick cloud like fog, and penetrates one's lungs almost to suffocation. So dense is this cloud, that when a train is in motion one can see it like a cloud for miles along the road. At night the men all present a truly hideous appearance, with their red-brown faces and almost blinded eyes.

The bushwhackers had been driving away our men who were repairing the railroad tunnel about twenty miles from here, and the general had ordered the region where these villains hide to be burned over, and everything which would shelter or feed man or beast to be destroyed or removed. Last Monday the whole region was on fire; the dry leaves in the forests burned like straw, and houses, barns and out-houses were either in a blaze or a mass of smoking ruins. The forage had all been taken in here for our use, and we think the rebels will not come back there again very soon.

We are now pleasantly located on the southern side of the city, near the line of our outer pickets, and every day long foraging trains go out and return laden with corn, wheat, oats and hay.

This place is but little else than one vast hospital and military store-room. Some stores and shops are open, but things sell at fabulous prices. Coats which any dealer in your city would gladly part with for fourteen dollars, readily command fifty here; eggs are only seventy-five cents per dozen; fresh beef is low at fourteen dollars per hundred; board at houses, where you drink rye coffee without sugar, is furnished at the low price of fourteen dollars per week. These prices, and the utter demoralization of all society, are a few of the sweets the tree of treachery has borne for the people here.

We found Gen. Negley's troops here all looking cheerful but hungry, for they had been on short rations for two weeks until the day we arrived, when a supply train ten miles long arrived from Mitchellville. We all like Gen. Rosecrans very much, because he seems to want to "move on." The weather is fine now, but we cannot move until the railroad is opened to this place from Bowling Green.

Three cheers for Burnside, and a wish for his success. J. M. KIMBALL.

From the American Baptist.

MY UNCLE SAMUEL'S BIG BLACK DOG.

Being an extract from a letter from Brother Jonathan to one of his particular friends.

BY R. B. T.

My friend, you have asked many questions in your letter about my uncle and our affairs. I will endeavor to answer you in a general way. I begin by saying that my Uncle Samuel is a farmer; none of your petty farmers, working away on the one-horse plan, at a miserable little lot of land that will hardly support man and beast. Nothing of that sort. I will not tell you how many thousand acres he owns, for that may be beyond my power of computing, but you must believe me when I affirm that this is a model farm, containing within itself vast resources, many of which are as yet scarcely touched, while others are worked with a diligence and power of contrivance which surprise all beholders.

As I am one of the nephews, (and there is any quantity both of nephews and nieces,) you will excuse me if I appear somewhat boastful. I tell you this in the start, so that you will make all due allowance. Well, then, to tell the truth, there is not another farm exactly like this anywhere. Its vast size, together with the peculiar management which our sensible and well-informed uncle exerts here, renders it with out a parallel. There are all kinds of crops raised within our domains. We have quarries which supply us with a variety of material for building, vast tracts of valuable timber, iron in untold quantities, mines of coal and of oil also, besides any quantity of silver, copper and gold. Then, as so great an abundance of material must find outlet, we have two immense sheets of water, one on either side of us, on which float vessels bearing our exports to our cousins beyond.

One of Uncle Samuel's nephews, (and a right smart fellow he was too,) invented a very simple yet most complete contrivance for conveying news from one part of the farm to another in a single instant of time. This we consider one of our greatest inventions, and our cousins across the water evidently thought so too, for they adopted it as soon as it proved an entire success. I fear it would tire you to tell you of all the many things I could boast of, if I had a mind to; so I'll merely refer to them, now and then, as I pass along, for now I want to tell you a little about my good uncle and his way of managing.

He is a fine, well developed gentleman, is my Uncle Samuel; so kind and genial, with an easy, good-natured smile to all. We his nephews and nieces are apt to take some liberties with him, such as familiarly terming him "Uncle Sam," and of saying just what we pleased about him, both before his face and behind his back. He takes it all in good part. The dear old fellow shakes his head at us in a half-threatening sort of a way, his eyes twinkling with suppressed merriment all the while, and then starts off, to overlook his various operations of one kind or another, while we, in his absence, help ourselves generally to the contents of his coat pockets, or explore his well stored sideboards, pantries and what not. I must not forget to tell you that Uncle Sam is a bachelor, and has a lot of lively nieces to manage the culinary department for him. You ought just to see the quantities of pickling and spicing and preserving they do up every fall for his benefit. I sincerely hope he will not have a spell of the gout in his old days.

Lately, I have feared that if our uncle had any weakness—the dear old soul, I can't bear to acknowledge that he has, but all human nature is subject to infirmities, they say—it is that of letting everybody do pretty much as he pleases, without any kind of restraint. I tell you this as a secret, which you must not breathe to any one; for it would hurt the old gentleman's feelings so, if he thought anybody, especially one of his own nephews, had told it. Still, I cannot help feeling that we may get into pretty serious trouble from this very cause some day; and having said this much, I'll have to explain, so that you may get at my meaning. You see that when our good uncle first took charge of this farm, he was quite a young man, full of ardor and vigor, which happily he carries with him in his mature years. He tried experiments, as is natural to young men. Some of his ideas he borrowed from certain old books which his grandfather left him, on the management of farms in ancient times; then, too, he had a surprising fund of ideas of his own, generally making out to do his own thinking. So when he found himself in possession of his lands with no opposing claims of any account, (though two of his cousins did, separately, set up a pretty violent opposition, which all died out in time,) he commenced trying his new plans; and the very first thing he did was to bring all his nephews together and have a talk with them, so that they might have a good understanding with each other.

After discussing matters pretty thoroughly, it was decided that instead of dividing the territory into various independent farms, which in the course of time might clash with each other, they would have one grand division, separated into as many minor divisions as needful, but all bound together by one compact. They were to choose individuals out of their number to preside over various posts which they might see fit to create.

Just here, in the very outset, began a new difficulty. One part of our domain, (and a very large part, too,) was devoted to the raising of crops which brought the very highest prices in the markets. One of these productions was a material from which could be manufactured a most desirable article of clothing. This was in great demand; machinery was necessary to perfect it. By some means, not necessary to detail minutely, one of our distant relatives had sent over to the part of the farm referred to, an enormous black dog, of an exceedingly fierce disposition. At the time of his arrival, he was only half grown, but gave indications of being a terrible creature when his size should be fully attained. Whether he would prove reliable as a watch-dog, or be useful in any way, remained to be seen. His owners contended that he would; so they had him put on a tread-mill connected with their machinery, and things went on quite prosperously for a while. It always seemed to me that it was not overly polite towards Uncle Sam, without even asking his consent, to keep an animal which everybody, including our Uncle, was afraid of. And then, too, they took so many airs upon them, and spoke in so dictatorial a manner to him, that I was both amazed and indignant. I really never could see why our Uncle stood it as meekly as he did. For instance, one day, when the old gentleman rode down to their part of the farm to overlook matters a little, these degenerate nephews approached him, and with an overbearing sort of a way thus addressed him: "We'll tell you what it is, sir; if you want us to help you, you must not say one word against our keeping this dog, nor about our way of managing."

Uncle Sam shook his head rather doubtfully at this, and looked somewhat graver than usual, as he answered: "I certainly do not like the looks of the animal at all, and I notice that whenever I speak to him in a commanding tone, be it ever so gentle, he gives me a look which I don't like, often accompanied by a low growl. I am afraid we sha'n't agree very well. Hey, old fellow!"—Here the object of their conversation intruded his shaggy lordship between the speakers, and gave a quick, sharp bark, that fairly startled our good old Uncle out of his usual sang froid. The owners laughed a little, and hastened to explain.

"Uncle, you don't understand this good fellow of ours; pat him a little, coax him up, and you'll find he'll follow you over the whole farm. Indeed, Uncle, we had thought of making him a present to you. Then he can go with you wherever you wish, and have the whole range of the farm."

"No!" said Uncle Samuel, bluntly, "I don't want him; and," he added most decisively, "I'll tell you what it is, youngster, if you are going to keep this creature, I shall insist upon your fencing him in. He must be confined to your part of the farm, and by no means have the range. The less I see and know of him the better. Do you understand that?"

As they had not been forbidden to keep their dog, these nephews felt that they had gained a very important point, and were determined to make the best of it; so they whispered to each other when alone, "We'll make the dog profitable to him, and then he will feel that we know how to manage our own affairs." "Yes, and in the end, we'll manage the old gentleman too," was the rejoinder.

"Keep dark on that point," muttered one of the more knowing ones; "time enough for that yet."

Ours being a model farm, as I have already mentioned, we were often visited by strangers, who would spend whole days examining our plans of gathering in the crops, our new modes of cultivating soils, the management of the mines, and so on. Whenever they approached that part of the farm where the dog was kept, I noticed that Uncle Samuel seemed a little fidgety; somehow, he did not care to have them criticize those quarters; for the visitors, on their return, would generally publish the doings of our plantation. It was curious too, to see the effect which a visit to this particular district had on certain individuals. If these strangers would approach Tiger (for that was the dog's name) in a coaxing mood, and flatter his keepers, the effect was magical. Doors would fly open, and tables would be instantly spread with delicate and refreshing viands; costly wines would be freely offered; and when the guests departed, it would be with the profoundest expressions of gratitude at the unrivaled hospitality they had met with.—Nor could they say too much in praise of Tiger, the wonderful combination of docility and activity which he possessed.—But let a man enter the enclosure who had not a good understanding with Tiger or his keepers, and he would meet with neither hospitality nor attention of any kind. Indeed, I myself have seen the mark of Tiger's teeth deeply imprinted in the flesh of certain men whom I respected as earnest and truthful characters. Some of them scarcely got away with whole bones.

[CONCLUDED TO MORROW.]

POLITICS OF OUR GENERALS.—The administration has certainly ignored partisanship in its military selections and arrangements. There are four major generals of the regular army. Of these, Halleck, a democrat, is general-in-chief. Wool and McClellan, democrats, and Fremont, republican, are retired from command. Burnside, major-general of volunteers, the successor of McClellan, is a democrat.—Dix, commander of the department of Eastern Virginia, is a democrat. Hunter, just ordered back to the department of the south, is a democrat. Butler, who commands the department of Louisiana, is a democrat. Buell, recently removed from the Cumberland department, is a democrat, and so also is Rosecrans, his successor. Gen. McClernand, of the new department of the Misvissippi, is a democrat. Gen. Wright, of the department of Kentucky and Ohio, is a democrat. Gen. Pope, of the department of the northwest, is a democrat. This very nearly "sweeps the deck." The only departments of any consequence whatever in command of republicans, are the departments of Missouri, Gen. Curtis, and the department of Tennessee, Gen. Grant.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT—U. S. TREASURY NOTES PHOTOGRAPHED.—The St. Louis Republican describes a photographed counterfeit $5 treasury note which was passed at a business house in that city. It is represented to be a very dangerous counterfeit, and except by an expert hand in such matters, would be in little danger of detection. Almost every where the bills would pass, so much are they like the original, and probably thousands of dollars have, within the last few days, been forced into circulation. Where the issue will stop is a startling inquiry. Not only fives, but all other denominations of treasury notes are photographed, it would seem easily, and people now cannot be too much on their guard in receiving United States notes. The peculiarities of the photograph exhibited yesterday consisted in some letters being slightly indistinct or faded, and the paper of a darker shade and one sixteenth of an inch smaller than the genuine. It also has something of a greasy appearance, and the signatures are blotted through the paper so as to be visible on back as well as front.

If any officers of the Army of the Potomac, whether belonging to Gen. McClellan's staff or to anybody else's staff or to no staff, see fit to resign, to desert the service of their country, because Burnside has been appointed to succeed Gen. McClellan, we hope they will have their epaulettes stripped from their shoulders in front of the army, and, with coats turned wrong side out and the word "traitor" pinned to their backs, be drummed out of camp. We are much mistaken if there is any part of this country they can live in.—Louisville Journal.

"MOB CITY."—To-day, Milwaukee stands pre-eminent in the Union as the City of Mobs. So intolerable is this state of things becoming there that Hon. Wm. A. Prentiss (who was prevented by a mob from drafting the number of men necessary to fill up the quota due from that county) offers for sale, through the advertising columns of the Daily Sentinel, his valuable real estate, including his private residence, assigning as as reason that he is desirous of changing his residence!

Milwaukee and Ozaukee are specimen bricks of modern democracy, and wherever you find that party in uninterrupted possession of power, there you find the mob spirit rampant.—Racine Advocate.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.—New Orleans papers of the 11th inst. represent business as completely prostrate. Of the sugar crop the National Advocate remarks: "Not a word do I learn of any grinding for the new crop. The sugar crop on the coast is doomed for this season." The same paper says the tobacco crop will be much less than usual, and but little of it will reach the New Orleans market. The great trading localities of the city are silent as death. The first class hotels are closed, with a single exception, and the markets offer nothing for sustenance.

A pail of milk often drinks as much water as a cow.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

A special to Herald says the latest information from Harper's Ferry represent Stonewall Jackson as falling back. This means that he is going to join Lee's army with his corps. Secessionists in Washington to-day are exultant over the movement of our army, that it is a compulsory one, and that it is in reality retreating before sudden attack by Stonewall Jackson.

General McClellan arrived in town last night.

The latest intelligence, believed to be reliable, states that the main body of the rebel army has succeeded in reaching a point between our army and Richmond. Jackson and Stuart are said to be between Culpepper and Warrenton.

Times' Washington Dispatch.—A gentleman who arrived here on Tuesday from Acquia Creek, which place he left that morning, says the rebel force at Fredericksburg was completely taken by surprise at our rapid advance on Falmouth, having barely succeeded in making their escape from our cavalry under General Buyard. While Buyard's cavalry was at the former place the rebels opened fire from four pieces of artillery stationed on a hill in the rear of Fredericksburg. It was replied to and soon silenced. Contrabands say the railroad is in good order all the way to Richmond.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.

An illustration of the shallowness of the pretence of British neutrality will be found in the following notes discovered in the Water Witch, the last prize captured. Barclay & McDowell are the leading merchants of Kingston, Jamaica, and seem to take it for granted that it is the duty of a commodore in the British navy to give information and advice to facilitate the delivery of cargoes in the blockaded ports of the south:

To Capt. King, of the Water Witch:

MY DEAR SIR:—I send you herewith a note for Com. Dunlap, and hope you may get some useful information from him.—Your messenger takes the demijohns of rum. Again wishing you a speedy and prosperous voyage, I am very truly yours,

JOS. H. MCDOWELL.

PORT ROYAL, Kingston Jamaica } June, 28th, 1862. }

To Com. Dunlap, C. B., &c.:

DEAR SIR—Capt. Thomas King, of the British schooner Water Witch, is about to leave with a cargo of merchandize in his vessel to a port in the southern states of America, and being anxious to get advice from you for his guide, we take the liberty of giving him this introduction, and will feel obliged for such counsel as you can give him under the circumstances.

We are sir, your ob't serv'ts,

BARCLAY & MCDONALD.

CAIRO, Nov. 20.

Passengers are just in from Holly Springs. For the present the army is at a stand still. Hospitals are being established and large quantities of grain collected. A depot for contrabands has been established at Grand Junction. They are placed under the care of Chaplain Eaton, 23d Ohio. He has also the job of picking the cotton in the neighborhood.

An expedition left Trenton and Humboldt yesterday, for a point on the Tennessee river, where it was reported a rebel force of 700 was crossing over to the west side. The boat in which they were crossing would carry but five or six men, and it was thought they would all be captured.

The Marine Hospital at Paducah was burned at 8 p. m., Monday. It contained about 100 patients, all of whom escaped. Most of the furniture was saved. The building, worth $100,000, is a government loss. Great consternation existed in town owing to the impression that this was a herald of rebel attack. Double pickets were placed round the town. Eight hundred and fifty prisoners start for Vicksburg to day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.

The court of inquiry ordered to assemble in Washington on the 27th of October has been dissolved.

At the request of Major General McDowell, a court of inquiry is ordered to assemble here, to morrow, at 11 o'clock, to inquire into certain charges made against him. Ex-Governor Dennison, and other witnesses summoned, are expected to be present. Detailed for the court, Maj. Gen. Cadwallader, Brig. Gens. Martindale and Van Allen, and Lt. Col. Long; H. Pelouse, judge advocate and recorder.

Gens. Hunter, Garfield, Buford, Prentiss and Morris, with Col. Holt as judge advocate, constituted a military commission to examine the charges preferred by General Pope against Fitz John Porter. This commission will also assemble this week.

It has been decided by the commissioner of internal revenue that persons selling or peddling from boats or vessels must take a license as dealers, either wholesale or retail, as the case may be. The license must say that the party is authorized.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

Owing to the storm, the telegraph wires do not work very well, and consequently we have received no items from any quarter. The steamer Eagle brings Havana dates of the 15th. The DeArtecomorra, secession paper, of Havana, denies that the steamer Blanche, or Spanish war steamer, bro't slaves as alleged, but the facts show the statement was correct. The Spanish steamer Cuba Doconto, arrived from New Orleans on the 20th. Weather in Havana cool and sickness disappearing. No rebel blockade runners had arrived since the 12th. The steamer America, from Nicaragua, with 572 California passengers, sailed from Havana on the 15th for New York.

Capt. Wagner, of the Oshkosh company in Barstow's cavalry, returned home recently on recruiting service, bringing over three thousand dollars to the wives and families of the men under his command. The company has lost about thirty by desertions, transfers, and discharges, but not a single man by death, though it has been nearly a year in the service.

MORE RESISTANCE TO THE DRAFT.—The draft commissioner of Kewaunee county arrived in Milwaukee on Tuesday, having been driven away from his duties by a mob.

A GREAT CROP.—Correspondents of the department of agriculture conversant with the progress of sorghum culture in this country, and qualified to judge accurately of this season's product, estimate the aggregate quantity of cane syrup at 40 000,000 gallons, and the area cultivated at 250,000 acres. In 1859, by the showing of the last census, the product was less than 8,000,000 gallons. If this estimate should prove correct, it is sufficient to supply more than half of the syrup and molasses needed in the United States.

GEN. FREMONT.—A petition is in circulation in the west, asking the President to give Gen. John C. Fremont command of the forces of the Mississippi valley.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

"General J. C. Fremont, on reporting himself for duty, was told that he must remain here and await further orders. Dispatches have been sent from St. Louis requiring his attendance again in connection with the trial of Gen. McKinstry. He will probably have to return there."

Since the commencement of the rebellion, nearly 460,000 troops have reported themselves for duty at Washington. These figures do not include the three months' men.

EXTRAORDINARY SNOW FALL.—A letter from Mauch Chunk, Penn., Nov. 7th, says: "We have had an avalanche of snow here this afternoon; one hundred and seventy-four pounds of snow fell on the platform of our scales—eight by fourteen feet—in forty minutes. Such a snow has rarely visited these mountains."

A Richmond letter in the Charleston Mercury says that John Mitchell is soon to join the rebel army.

Many capitalists are, it is said, purchasing diamonds and jewelry as the best and safest manner in which they can invest their money. Married ladies strongly advise such investments on the part of their husbands.

The frauds in the New York custom house, which were at first stated at $125,000, are now found to reach $700,000, and probably $1,000,000. The clerks detected so far are old employees, who were retained by the present collector, Mr. Barney.

An examination of the list of men in active service from Boston, shows the names of 2000 foreign born persons. It is also estimated that 300 of them are still alive.

Major General Mitchell, who recently died at Port Royal, was the inventor of the astronomical clock, now in use in all the observatories of the world—an invaluable mechanism for securing accuracy in the record of observations.

THUNDER AND LIGHTNING.—Adam Thunder was drafted in Franklin township, Pa., and Theo. Lightning has been drafted in the 3d ward of Kenosha. Now for Thunder and Lightning in the army. We hope the first flash will settle the rebels.

"Captives of War" in the Army.

We have heretofore alluded to the fact that the pro-slavery commanders of Union troops in Kentucky have attempted to compel Wisconsin regiments to return fugitive slaves who have fled to them for protection. This course of conduct is still continued, although it is clearly contrary to law. A soldier in the 22d regiment writes to the Racine Advocate as follows:

It is impossible to give friends at home adequate ideas of the inveterate and determined manner with which southern slaveholders and their army sympathizers cling to the "nigger." Slavery with them is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. Integrity, honor, patriotism and every noble principle in man pay homage to this southern God. It seems to be a fixed purpose on the part of army leaders in Kentucky, first to conquer and subdue all anti-slavery principles in northern regiments, cost what it may, and peril what it will. The 22d regiment has been kept constantly on the rack, still it maintains its integrity and is waging a good warfare.

The course taken by Gen. Gillmore subsequent to his declaration of policy, mentioned in my last, was most surprising and humiliating to every American citizen or soldier, holding sacred his country's honor. As a Michigan regiment was marching through Georgetown, almost in his immediate presence, some forty persons with drawn pistols, rushed into the ranks and forcibly took out every contraband. Before leaving Gorgetown himself, he was seen to get off his horse and accompany a slave-catcher to a passing regiment and assist him in taking a flying fugitive from the ranks; and he was heard to threaten the trembling transgressor of southern rule with death should he again attempt to transform himself from a slave into a man. Honorable work for a commanding general in the loyal army of the United States.

One officer in high standing as a military man (his name may yet be given,) has boldly intimated that it was the purpose of commanding officers of this department to ignore the action of congress and the proclamation of the President, making both dead letters. Strange and perhaps unreasonable as this may appear to the quiet and loyal citizens of Wisconsin, few here, familiar with the course pursued by commanding officers, will doubt that such a purpose exists.

That such of our soldiers in the army as may see our paper may know what the law of congress is on this subject, we copy the following from the confiscation act:

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all slaves of persons who shall hereafter be engaged in rebellion against the government of the United States, or who shall in any way give aid or comfort thereto, escaping from such persons and taking refuge within the lines of the army, and all slaves captured from such persons, or deserted by them and coming under the control of the government of the United States, and all slaves of such persons found or being within any place occupied by rebel forces, and afterwards occupied by the forces of the United States, shall be deemed captives of war, and shall be forever free of their servitude, and not again held as slaves.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That no slave escaping into any state, territory, or the District of Columbia, from any other state, shall be delivered up; or in any way impeded or hindered of his liberty, except for crime or some offance against the laws, unless the person claiming said fugitive shall first make oath that the person to whom the labor or service of such fugitive is alleged to be due, is his lawful owner, and has not borne arms against the United States in the present rebellion, nor in any way given aid and comfort thereto; and no person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States shall, under any pretence whatever, assume to decide on the validity of the claim of any person to the service or labor of any other person, or surrender up such person to the claimant, on pain of being discharged from the service.

We trust that all Wisconsin regiments, wherever they may be located, will refuse, as the 22d has done, to surrender up any fugitive that may come to their ranks, as they are to be treated as "captives of war," and are forever free; and no person in the military service has any right to decide upon claims made for the possession of slaves that may come into our lines. There is no distinction made between officers and men in this respect, as all are liable to the law, and to such other penalties as are imposed for violating any of the articles of war. We understand that the war department has taken some action to compel these Kentucky generals to conform to this enactment of congress, but they may still ignore their duty, and it is well that our volunteers should know their rights on this subject.

VERY ONE-SIDED.—The vote of nine companies of the 5th regiment—all except company D—has been received. It gives 74 for Potter, 1 for J. S. Brown; 32 for Sloan, 0 for Guppy; 38 for Cobb, 1 for Simpson; 26 for Bragg; 43 for E. L. Browne, 20 for Wheeler; 88 for Hanchett, 4 for Stoddard; and 8 scattering—being 301 republican and 26 democratic. The boys of this regiment fight well and vote well. The new company from Dunn county goes it strong—70 for Hanchett to 4 for Stoddard.

Washington county, where the draft is resisted, casts 2,946 votes for Eldredge (Vallandigham democrat), to 559 for Col. Bragg (War democrat). Bragg runs considerably ahead of the regular republican vote.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From Lake Superior.

[The following letter is from a member of the 10th Wisconsin regiment, taken prisoner last summer in Tennessee, and paroled but not exchanged. We understand that the government has sent about two hundred of these paroled men to Bayfield, Lake Superior, to look after the Indians during the winter.]

BAYFIELD, Nov. 11th, 1862.

We left Milwaukee one week ago last Monday, and reached Bayfield after seven day's travel. The first day out we reached and passed the straits of Mackinaw; stopping at Mackinaw about 10 o'clock at night. At noon of the second day we entered the canal, which is three-quarters of a mile long. Before reaching the canal we passed through the Sault St. Marie, which is about sixty miles long. Between the river and canal is Soo City, which is quite a place, about as large as they make in this part of the country.

The canal locks up, there being three of them. We only stopped long enough to get through the locks, but when through we tied up at Iroquois Point to wait for a snow storm to abate, it being deemed unsafe to venture on the lake until the blow was over. After lying there nearly 20 hours the storm abated, and we went on our way.

Nothing occurred worthy of note until the sixth day, when we entered Portage river and lake, running a distance of twenty miles to the town of Portage, whose only qualification for notice is its copper mines. We lay there 30 hours, unloading our cargo, which was nearly all for that place. I examined the mines and well paid I was for my trouble. There are seven shafts, which connect underground. They are some distance above the water, perhaps 100 feet, and 60 or 100 rods back from the water. The houses where the ore is pounded and washed stand on the bank of the lake, and the ore is brought to them by means of cars which run on a double track. It is an inclined plane, and the cars run by means of a rope pulley, and the attraction of gravitation. When the loaded car comes down the empty one goes up.

The pounding and washing is done mostly by machinery. The ore is first pounded fine, and then washed until the copper is all out. It separates in small, scale like particles, and is then barreled up and sent off. The box or socket that the pounder plays in is cleaned out twice in 24 hours. The pieces taken out are sometimes six or seven pounds in weight. In one of the houses the work of pounding and washing is done entirely by machinery. The pounders are driven by steam. They fall with the weight of 30 tons, and are four in number. Four men are kept constantly at work shoveling ore to supply them. The distance from Portage across west to land is only 12 miles, while the distance around is over 200 miles.

We left Portage early Sunday morning, and after running until about 10 o'clock, found the pump full of sand, which of course shut off the supply of water from the boilers, and which detained us nearly all day. We then run into Lapointe, and remained until Monday morning, when we run into Bayfield, which was only seven miles distant.

Bayfield contains perhaps 200 inhabitants, and is situated in about as warm a place as we can find up here. Our quarters are in a warehouse right on the banks of the bay. We will soon have it quite comfortable.

There are a good many half breeds here, and the Indians we are to look after are back about six miles upon the reservation.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

Major General Rosecrans' Headquarters,
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 14, 1862.

EDITORS GAZETTE: We left Bowling Green early Sunday morning, and on Tuesday at 10 o'clock reached here. The citizens call that rapid moving, as the distance is over seventy miles.

The severe drouth here for the last three months, together with the vast amount of travel on the roads, have created a fine stone dust about three inches deep all over the road. When man, beast or carriage moves, this dust arises in a thick cloud like fog, and penetrates one's lungs almost to suffocation. So dense is this cloud, that when a train is in motion one can see it like a cloud for miles along the road. At night the men all present a truly hideous appearance, with their red-brown faces and almost blinded eyes.

The bushwhackers had been driving away our men who were repairing the railroad tunnel about twenty miles from here, and the general had ordered the region where these villains hide to be burned over, and everything which would shelter or feed man or beast to be destroyed or removed. Last Monday the whole region was on fire; the dry leaves in the forests burned like straw, and houses, barns and out-houses were either in a blaze or a mass of smoking ruins. The forage had all been taken in here for our use, and we think the rebels will not come back there again very soon.

We are now pleasantly located on the southern side of the city, near the line of our outer pickets, and every day long foraging trains go out and return laden with corn, wheat, oats and hay.

This place is but little else than one vast hospital and military store-room. Some stores and shops are open, but things sell at fabulous prices. Coats which any dealer in your city would gladly part with for fourteen dollars, readily command fifty here; eggs are only seventy-five cents per dozen; fresh beef is low at fourteen dollars per hundred; board at houses, where you drink rye coffee without sugar, is furnished at the low price of fourteen dollars per week. These prices, and the utter demoralization of all society, are a few of the sweets the tree of treachery has borne for the people here.

We found Gen. Negley's troops here all looking cheerful but hungry, for they had been on short rations for two weeks until the day we arrived, when a supply train ten miles long arrived from Mitchellville. We all like Gen. Rosecrans very much, because he seems to want to "move on." The weather is fine now, but we cannot move until the railroad is opened to this place from Bowling Green.

Three cheers for Burnside, and a wish for his success. J. M. KIMBALL.

MY UNCLE SAMUEL'S BIG BLACK DOG.

Being an extract from a letter from Brother Jonathan to one of his particular friends.

BY R. B. T.

My friend, you have asked many questions in your letter about my uncle and our affairs. I will endeavor to answer you in a general way. I begin by saying that my Uncle Samuel is a farmer; none of your petty farmers, working away on the one-horse plan, at a miserable little lot of land that will hardly support man and beast. Nothing of that sort. I will not tell you how many thousand acres he owns, for that may be beyond my power of computing, but you must believe me when I affirm that this is a model farm, containing within itself vast resources, many of which are as yet scarcely touched, while others are worked with a diligence and power of contrivance which surprise all beholders.

As I am one of the nephews, (and there is any quantity both of nephews and nieces,) you will excuse me if I appear somewhat boastful. I tell you this in the start, so that you will make all due allowance. Well, then, to tell the truth, there is not another farm exactly like this anywhere. Its vast size, together with the peculiar management which our sensible and well-informed uncle exerts here, renders it with out a parallel. There are all kinds of crops raised within our domains. We have quarries which supply us with a variety of material for building, vast tracts of valuable timber, iron in untold quantities, mines of coal and of oil also, besides any quantity of silver, copper and gold. Then, as so great an abundance of material must find outlet, we have two immense sheets of water, one on either side of us, on which float vessels bearing our exports to our cousins beyond.

One of Uncle Samuel's nephews, (and a right smart fellow he was too,) invented a very simple yet most complete contrivance for conveying news from one part of the farm to another in a single instant of time. This we consider one of our greatest inventions, and our cousins across the water evidently thought so too, for they adopted it as soon as it proved an entire success. I fear it would tire you to tell you of all the many things I could boast of, if I had a mind to; so I'll merely refer to them, now and then, as I pass along, for now I want to tell you a little about my good uncle and his way of managing.

He is a fine, well developed gentleman, is my Uncle Samuel; so kind and genial, with an easy, good-natured smile to all. We his nephews and nieces are apt to take some liberties with him, such as familiarly terming him "Uncle Sam," and of saying just what we pleased about him, both before his face and behind his back. He takes it all in good part. The dear old fellow shakes his head at us in a half-threatening sort of a way, his eyes twinkling with suppressed merriment all the while, and then starts off, to overlook his various operations of one kind or another, while we, in his absence, help ourselves generally to the contents of his coat pockets, or explore his well stored sideboards, pantries and what not. I must not forget to tell you that Uncle Sam is a bachelor, and has a lot of lively nieces to manage the culinary department for him. You ought just to see the quantities of pickling and spicing and preserving they do up every fall for his benefit. I sincerely hope he will not have a spell of the gout in his old days.

Lately, I have feared that if our uncle had any weakness—the dear old soul, I can't bear to acknowledge that he has, but all human nature is subject to infirmities, they say—it is that of letting everybody do pretty much as he pleases, without any kind of restraint. I tell you this as a secret, which you must not breathe to any one; for it would hurt the old gentleman's feelings so, if he thought anybody, especially one of his own nephews, had told it. Still, I cannot help feeling that we may get into pretty serious trouble from this very cause some day; and having said this much, I'll have to explain, so that you may get at my meaning. You see that when our good uncle first took charge of this farm, he was quite a young man, full of ardor and vigor, which happily he carries with him in his mature years. He tried experiments, as is natural to young men. Some of his ideas he borrowed from certain old books which his grandfather left him, on the management of farms in ancient times; then, too, he had a surprising fund of ideas of his own, generally making out to do his own thinking. So when he found himself in possession of his lands with no opposing claims of any account, (though two of his cousins did, separately, set up a pretty violent opposition, which all died out in time,) he commenced trying his new plans; and the very first thing he did was to bring all his nephews together and have a talk with them, so that they might have a good understanding with each other.

After discussing matters pretty thoroughly, it was decided that instead of dividing the territory into various independent farms, which in the course of time might clash with each other, they would have one grand division, separated into as many minor divisions as needful, but all bound together by one compact. They were to choose individuals out of their number to preside over various posts which they might see fit to create.

Just here, in the very outset, began a new difficulty. One part of our domain, (and a very large part, too,) was devoted to the raising of crops which brought the very highest prices in the markets. One of these productions was a material from which could be manufactured a most desirable article of clothing. This was in great demand; machinery was necessary to perfect it. By some means, not necessary to detail minutely, one of our distant relatives had sent over to the part of the farm referred to, an enormous black dog, of an exceedingly fierce disposition. At the time of his arrival, he was only half grown, but gave indications of being a terrible creature when his size should be fully attained. Whether he would prove reliable as a watch-dog, or be useful in any way, remained to be seen. His owners contended that he would; so they had him put on a tread-mill connected with their machinery, and things went on quite prosperously for a while. It always seemed to me that it was not overly polite towards Uncle Sam, without even asking his consent, to keep an animal which everybody, including our Uncle, was afraid of. And then, too, they took so many airs upon them, and spoke in so dictatorial a manner to him, that I was both amazed and indignant. I really never could see why our Uncle stood it as meekly as he did. For instance, one day, when the old gentleman rode down to their part of the farm to overlook matters a little, these degenerate nephews approached him, and with an overbearing sort of a way thus addressed him: "We'll tell you what it is, sir; if you want us to help you, you must not say one word against our keeping this dog, nor about our way of managing."

Uncle Sam shook his head rather doubtfully at this, and looked somewhat graver than usual, as he answered: "I certainly do not like the looks of the animal at all, and I notice that whenever I speak to him in a commanding tone, be it ever so gentle, he gives me a look which I don't like, often accompanied by a low growl. I am afraid we sha'n't agree very well. Hey, old fellow!"—Here the object of their conversation intruded his shaggy lordship between the speakers, and gave a quick, sharp bark, that fairly startled your good old Uncle out of his usual sang froid. The owners laughed a little, and hastened to explain.

"Uncle, you don't understand this good fellow of ours; pat him a little, coax him up, and you'll find he'll follow you over the whole farm. Indeed, Uncle, we had thought of making him a present to you. Then he can go with you wherever you wish, and have the whole range of the farm."

"No!" said Uncle Samuel, bluntly, "I don't want him; and," he added most decisively, "I'll tell you what it is, youngster, if you are going to keep this creature, I shall insist upon your fencing him in. He must be confined to your part of the farm, and by no means have the range. The less I see and know of him the better. Do you understand that?"

As they had not been forbidden to keep their dog, these nephews felt that they had gained a very important point, and were determined to make the best of it; so they whispered to each other when alone, "We'll make the dog profitable to him, and then he will feel that we know how to manage our own affairs." "Yes, and in the end, we'll manage the old gentleman too," was the rejoinder.

"Keep dark on that point," muttered one of the more knowing ones; "time enough for that yet."

Ours being a model farm, as I have already mentioned, we were often visited by strangers, who would spend whole days examining our plans of gathering in the crops, our new modes of cultivating soils, the management of the mines, and so on. When ever they approached that part of the farm where the dog was kept, I noticed that Uncle Samuel seemed a little fidgety; somehow, he did not care to have them criticize those quarters; for the visitors, on their return, would generally publish the doings of our plantation. It was curious too, to see the effect which a visit to this particular district had on certain individuals. If these strangers would approach Tiger (for that was the dog's name) in a coaxing mood, and flatter his keepers, the effect was magical. Doors would fly open, and tables would be instantly spread with delicate and refreshing viands; costly wines would be freely offered; and when the guests departed, it would be with the profoundest expressions of gratitude at the unrivaled hospitality they had met with.—Nor could they say too much in praise of Tiger, the wonderful combination of docility and activity which he possessed.—But let a man enter the enclosure who had not a good understanding with Tiger or his keepers, and he would meet with neither hospitality nor attention of any kind. Indeed, I myself have seen the mark of Tiger's teeth deeply imprinted in the flesh of certain men whom I respected as earnest and truthful characters. Some of them scarcely got away with whole bones.

[CONCLUDED TO MORROW.]

POLITICS OF OUR GENERALS.—The administration has certainly ignored partisanship in its military selections and arrangements. There are four major generals of the regular army. Of these, Halleck, a democrat, is general-in-chief. Wool and McClellan, democrats, and Fremont, republican, are retired from command. Burnside, major-general of volunteers, the successor of McClellan, is a democrat.—Dix, commander of the department of Eastern Virginia, is a democrat. Hunter, just ordered back to the department of the south, is a democrat. Butler, who commands the department of Louisiana, is a democrat. Buell, recently removed from the Cumberland department, is a democrat, and so also is Rosecrans, his successor. Gen. McClernand, of the new department of the Mississippi, is a democrat. Gen. Wright, of the department of Kentucky and Ohio, is a democrat. Gen. Pope, of the department of the northwest, is a democrat. This very nearly "sweeps the deck." The only departments of any consequence whatever in command of republicans, are the departments of Missouri, Gen. Curtis, and the department of Tennessee, Gen. Grant.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT—U. S. TREASURY NOTES PHOTOGRAPHED.—The St. Louis Republican describes a photographed counterfeit $5 treasury note which was passed at a business house in that city. It is represented to be a very dangerous counterfeit, and except by an expert hand in such matters, would be in little danger of detection. Almost every where the bills would pass, so much are they like the original, and probably thousands of dollars have, within the last few days, been forced into circulation. Where the issue will stop is a startling inquiry. Not only fives, but all other denominations of treasury notes are photographed, it would seem easily, and people now cannot be too much on their guard in receiving United States notes. The peculiarities of the photograph exhibited yesterday consisted in some letters being slightly indistinct or faded, and the paper of a darker shade and one sixteenth of an inch smaller than the genuine. It also has something of a greasy appearance, and the signatures are blotted through the paper so as to be visible on back as well as front.

If any officers of the Army of the Potomac, whether belonging to Gen. McClellan's staff or to anybody else's staff or to no staff, see fit to resign, to desert the service of their country, because Burnside has been appointed to succeed Gen. McClellan, we hope they will have their epaulettes stripped from their shoulders in front of the army, and, with coats turned wrong side out and the word "traitor" pinned to their backs, be drummed out of camp. We are much mistaken if there is any part of this country they can live in.—Louisville Journal.

"MOB CITY."—To-day, Milwaukee stands pre-eminent in the Union as the City of Mobs. So intolerable is this state of things becoming there that Hon. Wm. A. Prentiss (who was prevented by a mob from drafting the number of men necessary to fill up the quota due from that county) offers for sale, through the advertising columns of the Daily Sentinel, his valuable real estate, including his private residence, assigning as as reason that he is desirous of changing his residence!

Milwaukee and Ozaukee are specimen bricks of modern democracy, and wherever you find that party in uninterrupted possession of power, there you find the mob spirit rampant.—Racine Advocate.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.—New Orleans papers of the 11th inst. represent business as completely prostrate. Of the sugar crop the National Advocate remarks: "Not a word do I learn of any grinding for the new crop. The sugar crop on the coast is doomed for this season." The same paper says the tobacco crop will be much less than usual, and but little of it will reach the New Orleans market. The great trading localities of the city are silent as death. The first class hotels are closed, with a single exception, and the markets offer nothing for sustenance.

A pail of milk often drinks as much water as a cow.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

A special to Herald says the latest information from Harper's Ferry represent Stonewall Jackson as falling back. This means that he is going to join Lee's army with his corps. Secessionists in Washington to-day are exultant over the movement of our army, that it is a compulsory one, and that it is in reality retreating before sudden attack by Stonewall Jackson.

General McClellan arrived in town last night.

The latest intelligence, believed to be reliable, states that the main body of the rebel army has succeeded in reaching a point between our army and Richmond. Jackson and Stuart are said to be between Culpepper and Warrenton.

Times' Washington Dispatch.—A gentleman who arrived here on Tuesday from Acquia Creek, which place he left that morning, says the rebel force at Fredericksburg was completely taken by surprise at our rapid advance on Falmouth, having barely succeeded in making their escape from our cavalry under General Bayard. While Bayard's cavalry was at the former place the rebels opened fire from four pieces of artillery stationed on a hill in the rear of Fredericksburg. It was replied to and soon silenced. Contrabands say the railroad is in good order all the way to Richmond.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.

An illustration of the shallowness of the pretence of British neutrality will be found in the following notes discovered in the Water Witch, the last prize captured. Barclay & McDowell are the leading merchants of Kingston, Jamaica, and seem to take it for granted that it is the duty of a commodore in the British navy to give information and advice to facilitate the delivery of cargoes in the blockaded ports of the south:

To Capt. King, of the Water Witch:

MY DEAR SIR:—I send you herewith a note for Com. Dunlap, and hope you may get some useful information from him.—Your messenger takes the demijohns of rum. Again wishing you a speedy and prosperous voyage, I am very truly yours,
JOS. H. MCDOWELL.

PORT ROYAL, Kingston Jamacia, June, 28th, 1862.

To Com. Dunlap, C. B., &c.:

DEAR SIR—Capt. Thomas King, of the British schooner Water Witch, is about to leave with a cargo of merchandize in his vessel to a port in the southern states of America, and being anxious to get advice from you for his guide, we take the liberty of giving him this introduction, and will feel obliged for such counsel as you can give him under the circumstances.

We are sir, your ob't serv'ts,
BARCLAY & MCDONALD.
CAIRO, Nov. 20.

Passengers are just in from Holly Springs. For the present the army is at a stand still. Hospitals are being established and large quantities of grain collected. A depot for contrabands has been established at Grand Junction. They are placed under the care of Chaplain Eaton, 23d Ohio. He has also the job of picking the cotton in the neighborhood.

An expedition left Trenton and Humboldt yesterday, for a point on the Tennessee river, where it was reported a rebel force of 700 was crossing over to the west side. The boat in which they were crossing would carry but five or six men, and it was thought they would all be captured.

The Marine Hospital at Paducah was burned at 8 p. m., Monday. It contained about 100 patients, all of whom escaped. Most of the furniture was saved. The building, worth $100,000, is a government loss. Great consternation existed in town owing to the impression that this was a herald of rebel attack. Double pickets were placed round the town. Eight hundred and fifty prisoners start for Vicksburg to-day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.

The court of inquiry ordered to assemble in Washington on the 27th of October has been dissolved.

At the request of Major General McDowell, a court of inquiry is ordered to assemble here, to morrow, at 11 o'clock, to inquire into certain charges made against him. Ex-Governor Dennison, and other witnesses summoned, are expected to be present. Detailed for the court, Maj. Gen. Cadwallader, Brig. Gens. Martindale and Van Allen, and Lt. Col. Long; H. Pelouse, judge advocate and recorder.

Gens. Hunter, Garfield, Buford, Prentiss and Morris, with Col. Holt as judge advocate, constituted a military commission to examine the charges preferred by General Pope against Fitz John Porter. This commission will also assemble this week.

It has been decided by the commissioner of internal revenue that persons selling or peddling from boats or vessels must take a license as dealers, either wholesale or retail, as the case may be. The license must say that the party is authorized.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

Owing to the storm, the telegraph wires do not work very well, and consequently we have received no items from any quarter. The steamer Eagle brings Havana dates of the 15th. The DeAricomorun, secession paper, of Havana, denies that the steamer Blanche, or Spanish war steamer, bro't slaves as alleged, but the facts show the statement was correct. The Spanish steamer Cuba Doconto, arrived from New Orleans on the 20th. Weather in Havana cool and sickness disappearing. No rebel blockade runners had arrived since the 12th. The steamer America, from Nicaragua, with 572 California passengers, sailed from Havana on the 15th for New York.

Capt. Wagner, of the Oshkosh company in Barstow's cavalry, returned home recently on recruiting service, bringing over three thousand dollars to the wives and families of the men under his command. The company has lost about thirty by desertions, transfers, and discharges, but not a single man by death, though it has been nearly a year in the service.

MORE RESISTANCE TO THE DRAFT.—The draft commissioner of Kewaunee county arrived in Milwaukee on Tuesday, having been driven away from his duties by a mob.

A GREAT CROP.—Correspondents of the department of agriculture conversant with the progress of sorghum culture in this country, and qualified to judge accurately of this season's product, estimate the aggregate quantity of cane syrup at 40 000,000 gallons, and the area cultivated at 250,000 acres. In 1859, by the showing of the last census, the product was less than 8,000,000 gallons. If this estimate should prove correct, it is sufficient to supply more than half of the syrup and molasses needed in the United States.

GEN. FREMONT.—A petition is in circulation in the west, asking the President to give Gen. John C. Fremont command of the forces of the Mississippi valley.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

"General J. C. Fremont, on reporting himself for duty, was told that he must remain here and await further orders. Dispatches have been sent from St. Louis requiring his attendance again in connection with the trial of Gen. McKinstry. He will probably have to return there."

Since the commencement of the rebellion, nearly 450,000 troops have reported themselves for duty at Washington. These figures do not include the three months' men.

EXTRAORDINARY SNOW FALL.—A letter from Mauch Chunk, Penn., Nov. 7th, says: "We have had an avalanche of snow here this afternoon; one hundred and seventy-four pounds of snow fell on the platform of our scales—eight by fourteen feet—in forty minutes. Such a snow has rarely visited these mountains."

A Richmond letter in the Charleston Mercury says that John Mitchell is soon to join the rebel army.

Many capitalists are, it is said, purchasing diamonds and jewelry as the best and safest manner in which they can invest their money. Married ladies strongly advise such investments on the part of their husbands.

The frauds in the New York custom house, which were at first stated at $125,000, are now found to reach $700,000, and probably $1,000,000. The clerks detected so far are old employees, who were retained by the present collector, Mr. Barney.

An examination of the list of men in active service from Boston, shows the names of 2000 foreign born persons. It is also estimated that 300 of them are still alive.

Major General Mitchell, who recently died at Port Royal, was the inventor of the astronomical clock, now in use in all the observatories of the world—an invaluable mechanism for securing accuracy in the record of observations.

THUNDER AND LIGHTNING.—Adam Thunder was drafted in Franklin township, Pa., and Theo. Lightning has been drafted in the 3d ward of Kenosha. Now for Thunder and Lightning in the army. We hope the first flash will settle the rebels.

County Board of Supervisors.

THURSDAY, 2 o'clock P. M.

The board met, and Mr. Norton offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a sufficient amount be raised on the assessment of 1862 to pay one half of the county scrip issued up to this date, and the money so raised be made a separate fund for that specific purpose; and the county treasurer be and is hereby authorised to pay the same on presentation of said scrip.

This resolution was laid on the table.—Several other propositions on the subject were then made, and a resolution offered by Mr. Carpenter to raise $18,000 for the purpose of paying 50 per cent on the scrip was finally adopted by a unanimous vote.

One half mill on the valuation was levied for the county school tax, and the board adjourned to to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

THURSDAY MORNING, Nov. 20TH.

The board met pursuant to adjournment.

A proposition to furnish 80 cords of wood at $4 per cord, was referred to the committee on public buildings.

An appropriation of $300 for rent of circuit court room was made.

Mr. Carpenter offered a resolution, which was adopted, directing the county treasurer to pay no money for services as deputy clerk of the circuit court.

Mr. Norton proposed a change of rule 16, the change requiring all persons presenting claims against the county for services or materials furnished, to attach the certificate of the officer ordering the same. Adopted.

Adjourned to to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, in order to give time to visit the county poor house.

Hospital Stores for the 13th Regiment.

Wm. M. Green, of Co. A, 13th Wisconsin regiment, having been detailed by Col. Lowe, commanding the post comprising Fort Donelson, Fort Henry and Fort Heiman, to visit this state to procure hospital stores for the 13th regiment, will receive and convey to the hospitals where the members of that regiment are sick or wounded, all articles which may be entrusted to him. These articles will be taken charge of by Mr. J. M. Riker, at his saddlery shop on Milwaukee street, until Mr. Green assumes the care of them. The articles most needed, Mr. Green informs us, are such delicacies and such food as are adapted to sick and convalescent persons. One of the most useful and desirable is good butter, which is extremely scarce in the hospitals. Mr. Green is himself attached to the hospital service, and will give his personal attention and personal pledge for the distribution of the contributions to the sick soldiers and for the purpose designed. He will, also, before he leaves, make a public report of the articles contributed and the names of the contributors. The soldiers for whose comfort and recovery this appeal is made have an abundance of necessary clothing, and the contributions now solicited are such as jellies, for the administration of medicines, dried fruit, dried beef, codfish, canned fruit of all kinds, and other articles which the experience of all persons familiar with the treatment of the sick will suggest. The time when Mr. Green will leave for the regiment will be announced hereafter; but in the meantime, if contributions are promptly made so as to warrant a shipment before he leaves, the supplies will be forwarded to those who will see that they are properly distributed.

The Milwaukee Draft.

The draft in Milwaukee took place yesterday, and good order prevailed. The threats of resistance were not carried into effect, probably in consequence of the ample and necessary preparations made by the governor. These, says the Madison Journal, "consisted of the presence, in addition to the 27th regiment in camp near Milwaukee, of about half of the 28th regiment, part of the force sent to Ozaukee having returned, two companies of the 31st sent up from Racine, and seven companies of the 30th sent down from here, all armed and equipped for service. Besides this infantry force, John McFarland took down a cannon on Monday, with a proper supply of ammunition to serve it in case of necessity. Col. J. C. Starkweather, of the 1st regiment, now at home on furlough, and eminently qualified for the business, was placed in command of all the troops."

MRS. ANDERSON'S SCHOOL.—The winter term of this school will commence Monday next. Mrs. A. has secured the services of the Rev. Mr. Knoepful as a teacher of the French, Latin, German, Greek and Hebrew languages.

The Roses and the Leaves, Barks and Gums will be the Healing of the Nations.

DR. H. M. PERINTON, the celebrated Indian Herb Doctor, can be consulted in Janesville, November 25th, one week, at the Myers House.

It will be seen upon the maxim of giving such balm only as will have no strife with nature or the laws of life. He never stains his hands with blood, nor poisons men to ease them of their pains. He cures the following complaints in the most obstinate state of existence: Consumption. Diseases of the Heart, Throat, Liver, Kidneys Scrofula, Chronic and Inflammatory Rheumatism, Female Weakness in all its forms, Fever Sores, Dropsy, Salt Rheum, Deafness, Gout, Neuralgia, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Headache, Rickets, Disease of the Spine, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pneumonia, Dyspepsia, Spleen, Typhoid, Nightmare, Heat of Urine, Whites and Fluor Albus, and the White Swelling, Piles. My practice is based upon the most correct theory of Materia Medica, calculated to act in harmony with all the established laws of the system, without even reducing it.

Each patient is put under treatment which lasts from three to four months. My medicines are all made into syrups, and made by my own hands, and are very pleasant to take. It will not harm the smallest child. It is hoped no one will despair of a cure until they have given the Indian Herb Doctor's medicine a fair and faithful trial.

During the doctor's travels in Europe, the West Indies, South America, Mexico, Cuba and the United States, he has been the instrument, in God's hand, to restore to health and vigor, thousands who were given up and pronounced incurable by the best of physicians; nay, more; thousands who were on the verge of the grave, are now living monuments to the Indian Herb Doctor's skill and successful treatment, and are daily exclaiming: "Blest be the day when I first partook of the Indian Herb Doctor's Medicine." The doctor pledges his word and honor that he will in no wise, directly or indirectly, induce or cause any invalid to take his medicine, without the strongest probability of a cure.

Consultation and advice free. The poor shall be liberally considered.

S-T-1860-X.

The language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food—the beauties of landscapes—the joys of companionship—richness of literature—or the honors of station and renown—must preserve their health.

The stomach is the receptacle of all nourishment, and the fountain from which all parts of the body, derive sustenance. The effect of foul injurious food entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs, and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshed sleep incapacity to perform any mental or physical duty, &c, and are the symptoms of that horrid disease which assumes a thousand shapes, and points towards a miserable life and premature decay. The Medical Faculty has labored for generations to discover reliable appetizers and the proper means of overcoming stomachic derangements. Certain ingredients have been long known as partially effective. Among these were

CALISAYA BARK & ST. CROIX RUM.

An invalid physician, sojourning in the tropical island of St. Croix, observing the habits of the natives, gathered the recipe for the final accomplishment of this most important end. The article was first used as a private medicine, when its salutary effects becoming known, it was brought out under the name of

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS.

They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage. They perform most wonderful cures in stubborn cases of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Intermittent Fevers, Diarrhœa, Sour Stomach, Headache, Fever and Ague, Weakness, Mental Despondency, &c As a morning appetizer and after dinner tonic, they should be in every family. They are a delightful, exhilarating stimulant, without any subsequent reaction.

IMPORTANT CERTIFICATE.

ROCHESTER, December 28th, 1862

MESSRS. P. H. DRAKE—

Gentlemen:—I have suffered terribly with Dyspepsia for three or four years, and tried many remedies without effect. I had to abandon my profession, and suffered greatly from everything I ate. I have now tried the Plantation Bitters—they helped me—I continued their use, and am now nearly a well man. I know of several similar cases.

Respectfully yours,
REV. J. S. CATHORN."

S-T-1860-X.

Intelligent persons and physicians can judge of the efficacy of the Plantation Bitters from the following partial formula.

CASCARILLA BARK

was known and used in Germany for Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Colic, Dysentery, and diseases of the Stomach and Bowels as early as 1690.

DANDELION,

for Inflammations of the Loins and Spleen in Dropsical Affections and Billiary Secretions, or Obstructions of the Abdominal Viscera.

CALISAYA, OR KING'S BARK,

was unknown to civilization until the middle of the 17th century. Humboldt makes favorable mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an Antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, in his extensive South American travels. The countess, wife of the Viceroy of Peru, having experienced the beneficial effects of this Bark, sent it to Europe in 1640. It was sold by the Jesuits for the enormous sum of its own weight in silver, and was thus called JESUITS' POWDERS. In 1658, Sir John Talbot employed it with great success in France, in the treatment of Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Weakness and Debility, Palpitation of the Heart, Diarrhœa, &c., under the name of English Powders and in 1679, he sold the secret of its origin to Louis XIV, by whom it was divulged. It is now a standard remedy in all Pharmacopœia, and is employed in preparing the Plantation Bitters.

Chamomile Flowers, for enfeebled digestion; Wintergreen, valuable for Scrofula, Rheumatism and Nefratic Affections; Lavender Flowers, aromatic, stimulant and tonic, highly invigorating in Nervous Debility; Anise, an aromatic carminative, creating flesh, muscle and milk. Much used in nursing.

S-T-1860-X.

Another ingredient of remarkable and wonderful virtue used in the preparation of these Bitters, is a native of Brazil, and as yet unknown to the commerce of the world. A Spanish writer says:

* * * * "administered with St. Croix Rum, never fails to relieve nervous tremor, wakefulness, disturbed sleep, &c., and that it is used with great effect by the Brazilians, Spanish and Peruvian Ladies to heighten their color and beauty It imparts cheerfulness to the disposition, vigor to the appetite and brilliancy to the complexion."

We withhold its name from the public for the present.

To the above are added Clove Buds, Orange, Carraway, Coriander, Snake Root, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure

ST. CROIX RUM.

The tonic properties of St. Croix Rum, and its powerful invigorating effects, have been long known to the physicians of the world.

Billious, Intermittent and Chill Fevers, engendered by the change of water and diet of travelers, particularly upon western rivers, are prevented and cured by the Plantation Bitters. They are also reliable to prevent sea sickness.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

"PHILADELPHIA, 1st month, 16th day, 1862

ESTEEMED FRIEND.—Wilt thou send me another dozen of thy Bitters? Nothing has proven so beneficial to my invalid wife or myself, as the Plantation Bitters.

Thy friend,
ISAAC HOWLAND."

N. B.—The secret of the immense sale of the Plantation Bitters, is their guaranteed purity The St. Croix Rum, and every article used, is warranted perfectly pure, and the money will be returned if not as represented.

The Plantation Bitters are put up in unique quart bottles, and sold by all respectable Druggists, Grocers, Hotels and Resturants throughout the world. Be particular that every bottle bears the fac-simile of the Proprietor's signature.

In conclusion we would advise the public not to be attracted by those who show false colors or get up "clap trap" advertisements but to come at once and inspect our stock, which is larger than all other stocks in Janesville put together, and which will be sold at less than present New York nett cash prices, at the store of McKEY & BRO.

The Fall and Winter Campaign is now Fully Opened.

THE NEW YORK CASH STORE has got The Lead and is BOUND TO KEEP IT.

There is no Stock of Goods in Janesville that can Stop It.

WE have now in our Three Stores the largest stock of all kinds of Merchandise to be found in the Interior of Wisconsin, particularly of STAPLE GOODS.

Our entire stock of Staple Goods were bought in July and August, for cash, before the great rise in all kinds of Cotton Goods, and we are selling them from

Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the manufacturers are by the 50 cases. We are in receipt every week of the manufacturers' prices of all the cotton goods made in the United States, which is open to the public for examination at our store at all times, so that our customers can see for themselves whether what we say is so or not.

We shall for the next thirty days sell our entire stock of consisting of Prints, Brown and Bleached Sheetings, Denims, Stripes, Ticks, Checks, Brown and Bleached Cotton Flannels, Bags, Batting and our entire Domestic stock at least twenty per cent less than the present prices of the manufacturers.

Our stock of Foreign

is twice as large as it ever was before, and much the largest stock in the city. All bought before the great rise in foreign exchange, consequently will be sold at less prices than we could by the same goods for at the present time in New York.

LADIES' CLOAKS.

The largest stock of these goods to be found in the state just received, and selling full as cheap as last year.—Also a very large assortment of

of all kinds, from the lowest price wool shawl, to the best Brocha made,

LADIES' FURS!

We are selling Ladies' Furs less than merchants pay for them who buy in a small way We have much the largest stock in Janesville, and will sell them from 25 to 50 per cent less than any house in this city. We mean exactly what we say.

Ladies' Hoods, Nubias, Skating Caps,

&c. These goods we are selling cheaper than we did last year, or any other year, so that our customers cannot say but there is one thing they can buy as cheap this year as they ever did. We are just in receipt of

of the above goods, direct from a New England manufacturer, to whom we gave our order some two months since, and were made at least thirty per cent less than we could buy the goods for now. We are selling the same quality of Hoods for one dollar, that we sold last year at twelve shillings. We have also a few beautiful trimmed with fur, to be found in no other place in Janesville.

Merchant Tailoring Department.

Our Cloth Room now contains much the largest stock of good CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
VESTINGS
and
FURNISHING GOODS, to be found in this city, and as good as can be found in any city in this country, from which we are in as good style as can be obtained in Broadway or elsewhere. Persons wanting fine clothing need not go away for it, as we will satisfy them that it can be done here as well as elsewhere.

MANUFACTURING ALL KINDS of GARMENT

READY-MADE CLOTHING and HAT AND CAP STORE.

This branch of our business having increased to a very large trade, we are running a store separate from our main store, which is three doors below, on Main street, where we have the largest stock of

to be found in any establishment in this city.
Particular attention is called to our immense stock of

Mens' & Boys' Hats & Caps

of all qualities and prices. In these goods we shall not attempt to enumerate our stock, as that would be an impossibility. We buy all our Hats and Caps by the case from the manufacturers, and we will guarantee to sell these particular goods

Twenty-Five per cent Cheaper than they can be bought at any other house in this city. Persons living within one hundred miles of Janesville, will make money by coming here to buy their goods; and when you get here, be sure and come to the

J. M. BURGESS, Postmaster.

County Board of Supervisors.

THURSDAY, 2 o'clock P. M.

The board met, and Mr. Norton offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a sufficient amount be raised on the assessment of 1862 to pay one half of the county scrip issued up to this date, and the money so raised be made a separate fund for that specific purpose; and the county treasurer be and is hereby authorised to pay the same on presentation of said scrip.

This resolution was laid on the table.—Several other propositions on the subject were then made, and a resolution offered by Mr. Carpenter to raise $18,000 for the purpose of paying 50 per cent on the scrip was finally adopted by a unanimous vote.

One half mill on the valuation was levied for the county school tax, and the board adjourned to to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

THURSDAY MORNING, Nov. 20TH.

The board met pursuant to adjournment.

A proposition to furnish 80 cords of wood at $4 per cord, was referred to the committee on public buildings.

An appropriation of $300 for rent of circuit court room was made.

Mr. Carpenter offered a resolution, which was adopted, directing the county treasurer to pay no money for services as deputy clerk of the circuit court.

Mr. Norton proposed a change of rule 16, the change requiring all persons presenting claims against the county for services or materials furnished, to attach the certificate of the officer ordering the same. Adopted.

Adjourned to to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, in order to give time to visit the county poor house.

Hospital Stores for the 13th Regiment.

Wm. M. Green, of Co. A, 13th Wisconsin regiment, having been detailed by Col. Lowe, commanding the post comprising Fort Donelson, Fort Henry and Fort Heiman, to visit this state to procure hospital stores for the 13th regiment, will receive and convey to the hospitals where the members of that regiment are sick or wounded, all articles which may be entrusted to him. These articles will be taken charge of by Mr. J. M. Riker, at his saddlery shop on Milwaukee street, until Mr. Green assumes the care of them. The articles most needed, Mr. Green informs us, are such delicacies and such food as are adapted to sick and convalescent persons. One of the most useful and desirable is good butter, which is extremely scarce in the hospitals. Mr. Green is himself attached to the hospital service, and will give his personal attention and personal pledge for the distribution of the contributions to the sick soldiers and for the purpose designed. He will, also, before he leaves, make a public report of the articles contributed and the names of the contributors. The soldiers for whose comfort and recovery this appeal is made have an abundance of necessary clothing, and the contributions now solicited are such as jellies, for the administration of medicines, dried fruit, dried beef, codfish, canned fruit of all kinds, and other articles which the experience of all persons familiar with the treatment of the sick will suggest. The time when Mr. Green will leave for the regiment will be announced hereafter; but in the meantime, if contributions are promptly made so as to warrant a shipment before he leaves, the supplies will be forwarded to those who will see that they are properly distributed.

The Milwaukee Draft.

The draft in Milwaukee took place yesterday, and good order prevailed. The threats of resistance were not carried into effect, probably in consequence of the ample and necessary preparations made by the governor. These, says the Madison Journal, "consisted of the presence, in addition to the 27th regiment in camp near Milwaukee, of about half of the 28th regiment, part of the force sent to Ozaukee having returned, two companies of the 31st sent up from Racine, and seven companies of the 30th sent down from here, all armed and equipped for service. Besides this infantry force, John McFarland took down a cannon on Monday, with a proper supply of ammunition to serve it in case of necessity. Col. J. C. Starkweather, of the 1st regiment, now at home on furlough, and eminently qualified for the business, was placed in command of all the troops."

MRS. ANDERSON'S SCHOOL.—The winter term of this school will commence Monday next. Mrs. A. has secured the services of the Rev. Mr. Knoepfel as a teacher of the French, Latin, German, Greek and Hebrew languages.

DR. H. M. PERINTON, the celebrated Indian Herb Doctor, can be consulted in Janesville, November 25th, one week, at the Myers House.

It will be seen upon the maxim of giving such balm only as will have no strife with nature or the laws of life. He never stains his hands with blood, nor poisons men to ease them of their pains. He cures the following complaints in the most obstinate state of existence: Consumption, Diseases of the Heart, Throat, Liver, Kidneys Scrofula, Chronic and Inflammatory Rheumatism, Female Weakness in all its forms, Fever Sores, Dropsy, Salt Rheum, Deafness, Gout, Neuralgia, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Headache, Rickets, Disease of the Spine, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pneumonia, Dyspepsia, Spleen, Typhoid, Nightmare, Heat of Urine, Whites and Fluor Albus, and the White Swelling, Piles. My practice is based upon the most correct theory of Materia Medica, calculated to act in harmony with all the established laws of the system, without even reducing it.

Each patient is put under treatment which lasts from three to four months. My medicines are all made into syrups, and made by my own hands, and are very pleasant to take. It will not harm the smallest child. It is hoped no one will despair of a cure until they have given the Indian Herb Doctor's medicine a fair and faithful trial.

During the doctor's travels in Europe, the West Indies, South America, Mexico, Cuba and the United States, he has been the instrument, in God's hand, to restore to health and vigor, thousands who were given up and pronounced incurable by the best of physicians; nay, more; thousands who were on the verge of the grave are now living monuments to the Indian Herb Doctor's skill and successful treatment, and are daily exclaiming: "Blest be the day when I first partook of the Indian Herb Doctor's Medicine." The doctor pledges his word and honor that he will in no wise, directly or indirectly, induce or cause any invalid to take his medicine, without the strongest probability of a cure.

Consultation and advice free. The poor shall be liberally considered.

S.-T.-1860-X.

The language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food—the beauties of landscapes—the joys of companionship—richness of literature—or the honors of station and renown—must preserve their health.

The stomach is the receptacle of all nourishment, and the fountain from which all parts of the body, derive sustenance. The effect of foul injurious food entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs, and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshed sleep incapacity to perform any mental or physical duty, &c., and are the symptoms of that horrid disease which assumes a thousand shapes, and points towards a miserable life and premature decay. The Medical Faculty has labored for generations to discover reliable appetizers and the proper means of overcoming stomachic derangements. Certain ingredients have been long known as partially effective. Among these were

CALISAYA BARK & ST. CROIX RUM.

An invalid physician, sojourning in the tropical island of St. Croix, observing the habits of the natives, gathered the recipe for the final accomplishment of this most important end. The article was first used as a private medicine, when its salutary effects becoming known, it was brought out under the name of

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS.

They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage. They perform most wonderful cures in stubborn cases of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Intermittent Fevers, Diarrhœa, Sour Stomach, Headache, Fever and Ague, Weakness, Mental Despondency, &c. As a morning appetizer and after dinner tonic, they should be in every family. They are a delightful, exhilarating stimulant, without any subsequent reaction.

IMPORTANT CERTIFICATE.

ROCHESTER, December 28th, 1862.

MESSRS. P. H. DRAKE—

Gentlemen:—I have suffered terribly with Dyspepsia for three or four years, and tried many remedies without effect. I had to abandon my profession, and suffered greatly from everything I ate. I have now tried the Plantation Bitters—they helped me—I continued their use, and am now nearly a well man. I know of several similar cases.

Respectfully yours,
REV. J. S. CATHORN."

S.-T.-1860-X.

Intelligent persons and physicians can judge of the efficacy of the Plantation Bitters from the following partial formula.

CASCARILLA BARK

was known and used in Germany for Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Colic, Dysentery, and diseases of the Stomach and Bowels as early as 1690.

DANDELION,

for Inflammations of the Loins and Spleen in Dropsical Affections and Billiary Secretions, or Obstructions of the Abdominal Viscera.

CALISAYA, OR KING'S BARK,

was unknown to civilization until the middle of the 17th century. Humboldt makes favorable mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an Antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, in his extensive South American travels. The countess, wife of the Viceroy of Peru, having experienced the beneficial effects of this Bark, sent it to Europe in 1640. It was sold by the Jesuits for the enormous sum of its own weight in silver, and was thus called JESUITS' POWDERS. In 1658, Sir John Talbot employed it with great success in France, in the treatment of Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Weakness and Debility, Palpitation of the Heart, Diarrhœa, &c., under the name of English Powders and in 1679, he sold the secret of its origin to Louis XIV, by whom it was divulged. It is now a standard remedy in all Pharmacopœia, and is employed in preparing the Plantation Bitters.

Chamomile Flowers, for enfeebled digestion; Wintergreen, valuable for Scrofula, Rheumatism and Nefratic Affections; Lavender Flowers, aromatic, stimulant and tonic, highly invigorating in Nervous Debility; Anise, an aromatic carminative, creating flesh, muscle and milk. Much used in nursing.

S.-T.-1860-X.

Another ingredient of remarkable and wonderful virtue used in the preparation of these Bitters, is a native of Brazil, and as yet unknown to the commerce of the world. A Spanish writer says:

* * * * "administered with St. Croix Rum, never fails to relieve nervous tremor, wakefulness, disturbed sleep, &c., and that it is used with great effect by the Brazilians, Spanish and Peruvian Ladies to heighten their color and beauty. It imparts cheerfulness to the disposition, vigor to the appetite and brilliancy to the complexion."

We withhold its name from the public for the present.

To the above are added Clove Buds, Orange, Carraway, Coriander, Snake Root, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure

ST. CROIX RUM.

The tonic properties of St. Croix Rum, and its powerful invigorating effects, have been long known to the physicians of the world.

Billious, Intermittent and Chill Fevers, engendered by the change of water and diet of travelers, particularly upon western rivers, are prevented and cured by the Plantation Bitters. They are also reliable to prevent sea sickness.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

"PHILADELPHIA, 1st month, 16th day, 1862.

ESTEEMED FRIEND.—Wilt thou send me another dozen of thy Bitters? Nothing has proven so beneficial to my invalid wife or myself, as the Plantation Bitters.

Thy friend,
ISAAC HOWLAND."

N. B.—The secret of the immense sale of the Plantation Bitters, is their guaranteed purity. The St. Croix Rum, and every article used, is warranted perfectly pure, and the money will be returned if not as represented.

The Plantation Bitters are put up in unique quart bottles, and sold by all respectable Druggists, Grocers, Hotels and Resturants throughout the world. Be particular that every bottle bears the fac-simile of the Proprietor's signature.

A GREAT TRIUMPH

has recently been achieved by

THE UNION ARMY,

the importance of which to the whole country is admitted by every loyal man. A great Triumph has also been achieved by the results of which are not without their importance to the whole people of Wisconsin, as they must admit upon inspecting our enormous stock, and learning the prices. Five months ago, foreseeing the tremendous advance which has since taken place in the price of

DOMESTIC GOODS,

and believing in the old proverb that "Delays are Dangerous," we took "Time" by the forelock and brought our immense to bear on a depreciated market, and as we had lived and prospered amongst the people of Wisconsin, we resolved that they should have the benefit of our long experience and large Cash Capital. We therefore purchased in May and June last over consisting of 300 bales and cases of Fine Medium and Heavy Bleached and Unbleached Sheetings and Shirting, in all the popular widths and makes.

$100,000 Worth of Domestic Goods,

100 cases Merrimac, Cocheco, American, Sprague and other celebrated brands of Fast Color Calicoes, printed in advance for this fall's trade.

50 cases Cotton Flannel, bleached and unbleached, long thick nap, and made on the heaviest drilling.

30 cases and bales of Denims, in the well known Amoskeag, Hay Maker, Mount Vernon and other superior makes.

25 cases and bales of Shirting Stripes, the heaviest and most durable, such as Amoskeag, York, Westbrook, &c.

20 cases Gingham, in Beverly Lancaster and other heavy and fast color makes.

300 bales of Batting, low, medium and fine.

We have a Monster stock of Flannels of every make, color, quality and width. All our White Flannels are of the highly prized make of Samuel Gilbert, Andover, Mass. They are warranted pure wool and sulphur, stove dried which imparts to them their well known medicinal qualities, and makes them sought after by every New England housewife.

Bargains for Cash.

We shall sell a good Madder Print for 10c. A full Madder Print for one shilling, and all our best and choicest styles for 15c.

We shall sell a good unbleached Factory for one shilling, and a good bleached Factory for the same price.

Choice printed and plain DeLaines, worth 20c, at one shilling. If asked how we can afford to do so, we answer "cash" does it.

So much for our Domestic Goods, which have been laid in at a cost of fifty cents on the dollar of what other merchants have since been obliged to pay for them.

We have just received 20 cases of new and choice styles of Hamilton, Manchester and Pacific DeLaines, which we shall sell at Cost.

Also 25 pieces of Middlesex, all wool, pressed Flannels, in choice shades, and which we offer at the old price is full and complete, and was bought when prices were at the bottom before the tremendous advance in exchange took place.

We have now on hand a magnificent stock of consisting of Double Twilled all wool Merinos, printed and plain; English Merinos, printed and plain; French and English Repps and Velours, printed and plain; Parramatta Cloths, Ottomans, Palestrine, Garibaldis, &c. Also 200 pieces all wool and Union Plaid Merinos.

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS.

We have over 3,000 superior all wool heavy Blanket Shawls—bought cheap, and which we shall sell cheap.

Our Cloak stock is replete with all the New and Desirable styles.

MILLINERY GOODS.

We are now opening our usual fall and winter stock of French Millinery Goods, which will be found to contain all the new and fashionable styles.

In Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

we are largely and well assorted.

Our Clothing Store

will be found to contain every thing that is new, elegant and economical, consisting of

Coats, Vests and Pants, got up under the supervision of our own experienced cutter, together with a fine assortment of

HATS, CAPS, CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, &c., &c.

In conclusion we would advise the public not to be attracted by those who show false colors or get up "clap trap" advertisements but to come at once and inspect our stock, which is larger than all other stocks in Janesville put together, and which will be sold at less than present New York nett cash prices, at the store of McKEY & BRO.
